

Nebraska vs. Kansas State

Official Program – 15 cents

January 18, 1975

With a regional television audience tuned in, revenge will be on the minds of the Nebraska Cornhuskers this afternoon when they host Coach Jack Hartman's Wildcats from Kansas State University.

On Dec. 30 of last year, Nebraska (7-5) and Kansas State (8-4) played for third place in the Big 8 Preseason Basketball Tournament and the Wildcats were never threatened as they defeated Nebraska 80-63.

But the Huskers have had two weeks to prepare for the K-State invasion and Nebraska head coach Joe Cipriano hopes his team is ready. "I thought that we'd be the quickest team in the league this year," he said. "But Kansas State proved that they are by beating us. I just hope we play them better here than what we did at the Big 8."

Leading the Huskers into conference play is junior All Big 8 guard Jerry Fort. He is sporting a 17-point game average and has led Nebraska in scoring eight out of its 12 games.

Rebounding leader for Nebraska is senior forward Steve Erwin. After 12 games, Erwin has gathered in 82 rebounds for an average of 6.8-per-game. Close behind Erwin is

On Jan. 11 Kansas State lost to Tulane 80-58 and face Arkansas in Manhattan on Jan. 15 before traveling to Lincoln. The 'Cats are led by guards Mike Evans and Chuckie Williams. Evans, a freshman, is K-State's scoring leader with a 17.9 average. Williams, a junior, has a 17.7 scoring average.

Junior center Carl Gerlach is Kansas State's rebound leader with an 8.7-per-game-average and sophomore forward Darryl Winston follows closely behind Gerlach with an 8.5 average.

Although Kansas State defeated the Huskers at the Big 8 tournament, Hartman is expecting a rough time from Nebraska. "We played a good game against a fine Nebraska team at the Big 8," he said. "But we probably caught them a little flat and I'm sure they won't be that way Saturday."

K-State leads the Wildcat-Husker series 80-58. Last year, Kansas State and Nebraska met three times with the 'Cats winning twice (68-47 and 73-65) and Nebraska victorious once (58-54).
